ANIMAL MAGIC

Wow, this cat can play!

Watch out, there's a new cat in town! Nora the piano cat, a YouTube sensation, just went triple platinum — with three million hits on her clip. "She took a special interest in the piano from day one," says Nora's owner, Betsy Alexander of Philadelphia. "We heard plink plink coming from the living room and found Nora concentrating at the keyboard." Nora, who's been playing for almost two years, sometimes practices for hours. "She likes to hit the high notes," Betsy says.
